

LIBERO COPPER DIRECTOR RESIGNS

November 13, 2018 – Liberio Copper Corporation (TSX-V: LBC, OTCQB: LBCMF) announces that Mr. Jeffrey Mason has resigned as a director to pursue other interests. The Board of Directors would like to thank Mr. Mason for his service and contributions and wish him well in his future endeavours.

About Liberio Copper

Liberio Copper is focused on acquiring high-quality copper deposits in the Americas with significant resources but without any fatal flaws or significant holding costs. These assets are being advanced and de-risked by a seasoned team to minimize dilution and maximize shareholder value. The portfolio currently includes the Tomichi deposit in the United States which contains an inferred mineral resource of 711 million tonnes at a grade of 0.33% copper equivalent and the Mocoa deposit in Colombia which contains an inferred resource of 636 million tonnes at a grade of 0.45% copper equivalent. In total the properties contain 7.9 billion pounds of copper and 1.1 billion pounds of molybdenum.
